Oakdale is a happy and friendly school where we all support one another. We have a beautiful school which has undergone an expansion and have had a successful Ofsted inspection. Our pupils are well-behaved and respectful.

We are looking for a teaching assistant to join our caring and committed team in KS1. We are looking for someone with some school experience and a TA qualification who would like to make a difference to our pupils. Our team are highly supportive of one another and take part in regular peer coaching to share good practice.

Tours of the school are warmly welcomed. Contact Hannah or Naomi in our school office if you would like to talk to the Head or Deputy about this opportunity on 01733 566237

Application packs can be obtained from our website. Please include a covering letter (no more than one side of A4 please) with reference to the Person specification criteria with the application form. Visits to the school are welcomed. Please note that previous candidates need not apply.
